

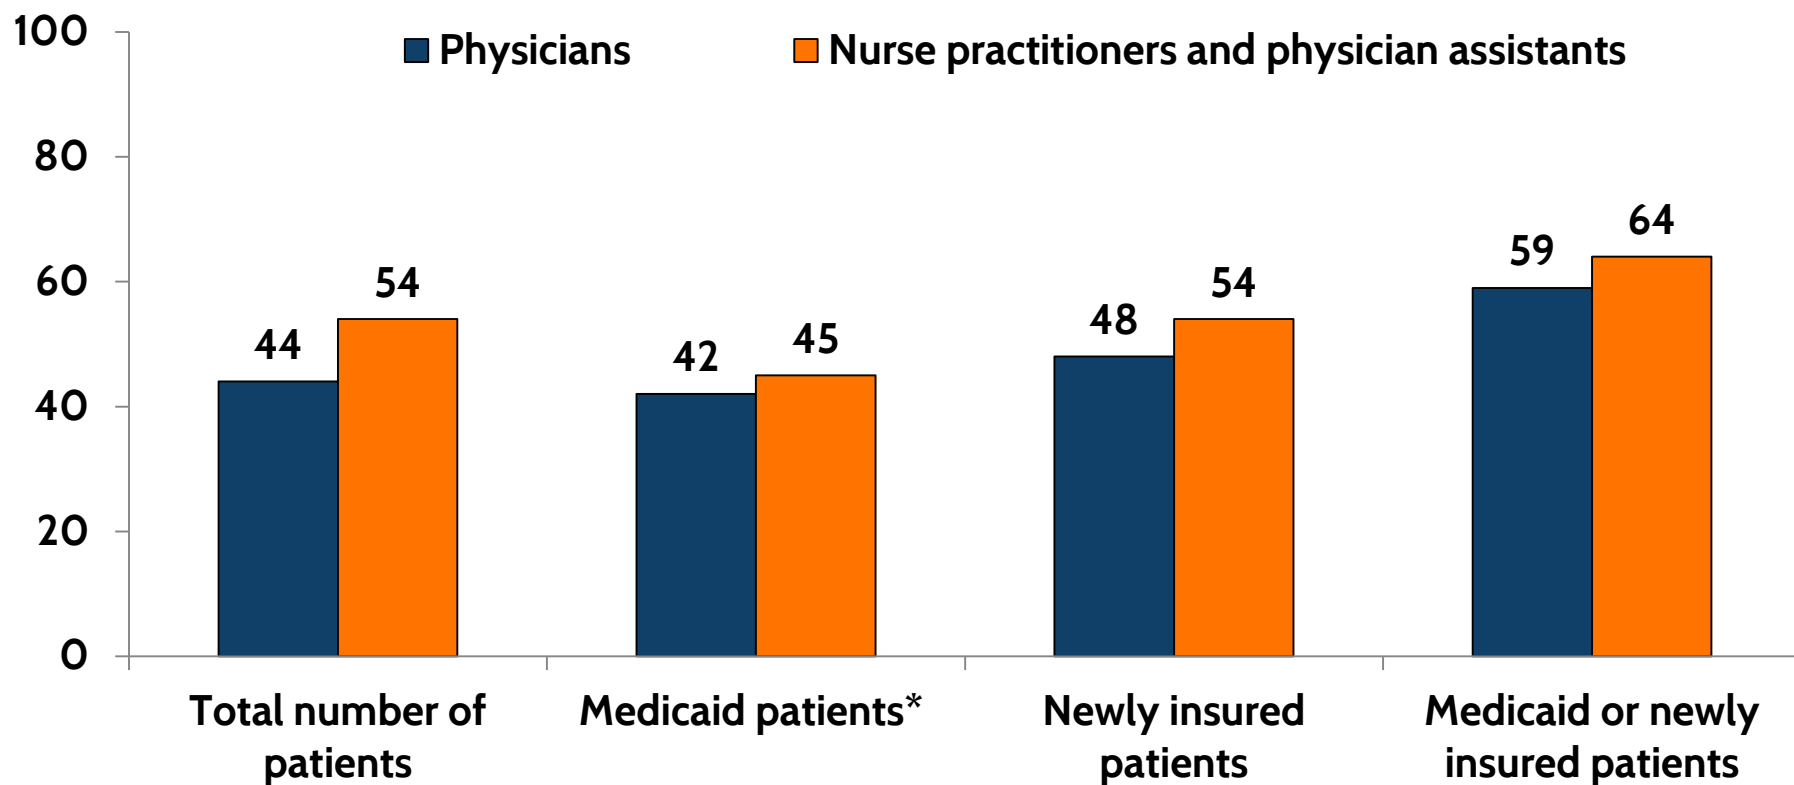

Exhibit 1. About Six of 10 Primary Care Clinicians Are Seeing More Medicaid or Newly Insured Patients Since January 2014

Percent of providers reporting increases in the following patients since January 2014

* Among providers accepting Medicaid patients.

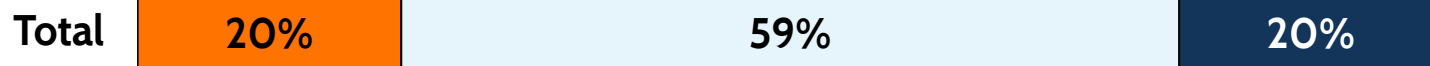

Source: The Kaiser Family Foundation/Commonwealth Fund 2015 National Survey of Primary Care Providers.

Exhibit 2. Most Providers Report No Change in Their Ability to Provide Quality Care

Percent who say since January 2014, their ability to provide high-quality care to all patients has:

■ Gotten worse □ Stayed about the same ■ Improved

Physicians

Nurse practitioners/Physician assistants

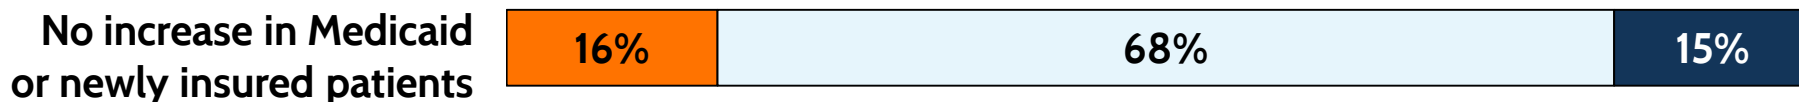

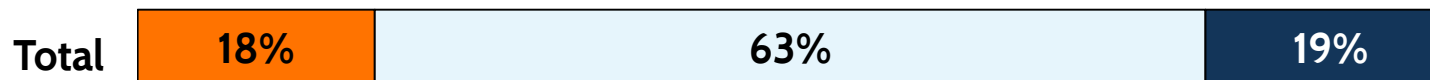

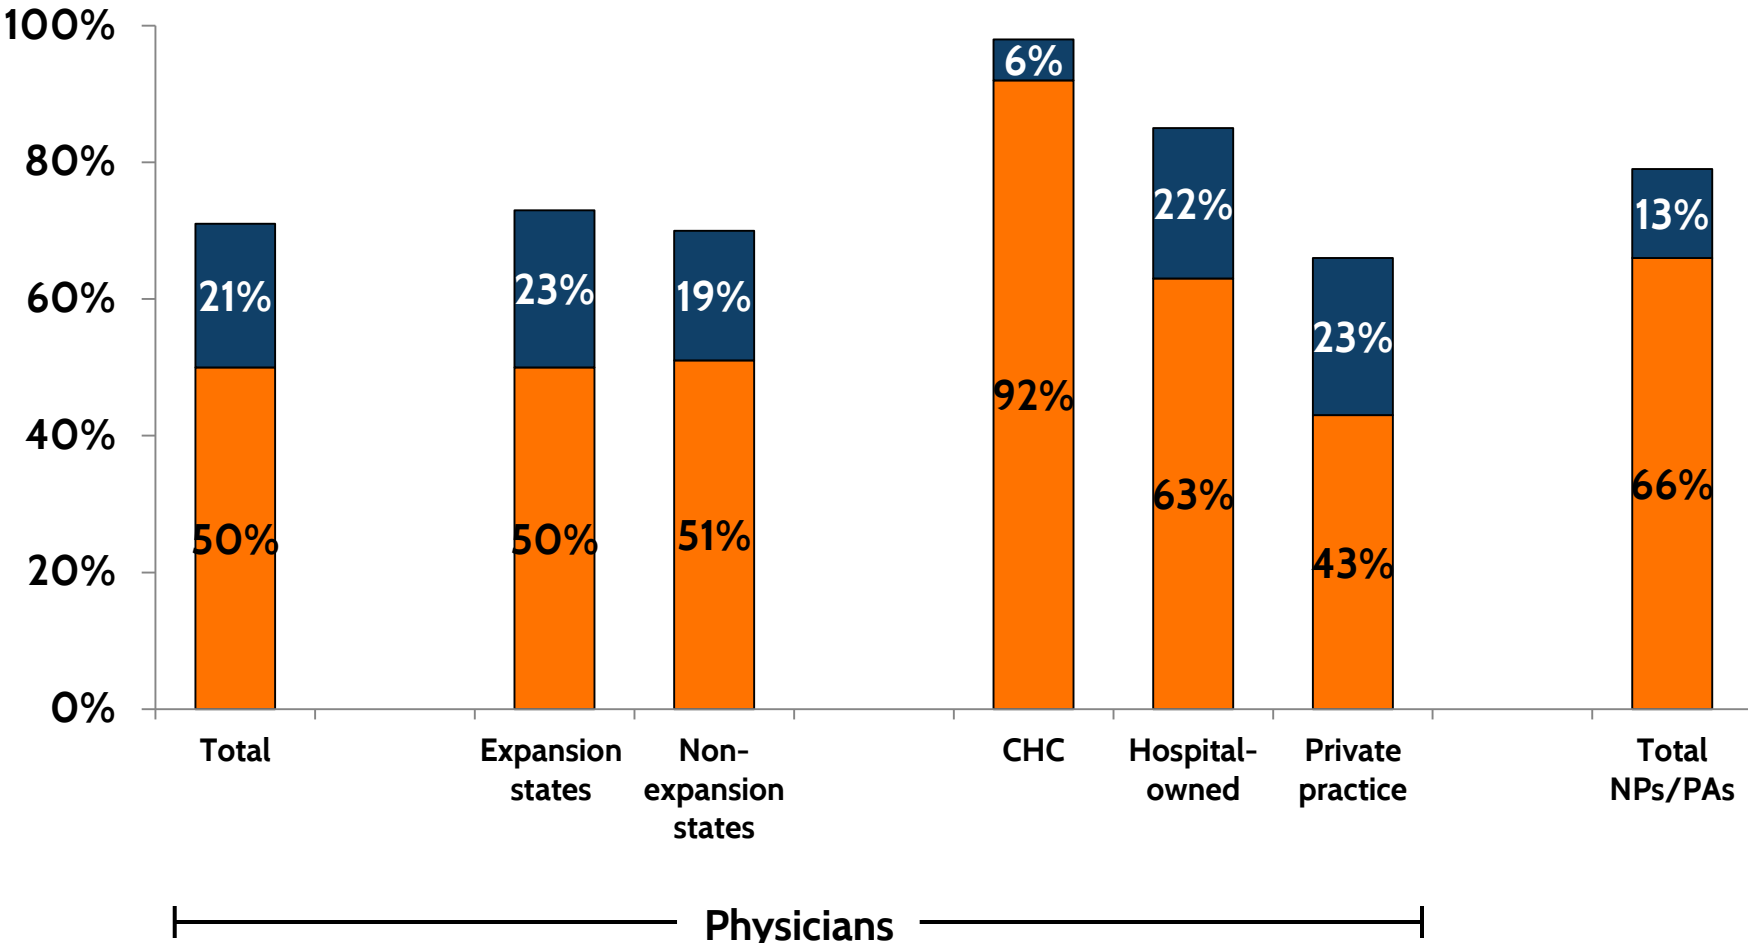

Exhibit 3. Half of Physicians and Two-Thirds of Nurse Practitioners and Physician Assistants Are Currently Accepting New Medicaid Patients

■ Accepts Medicaid but not currently taking new Medicaid patients
■ Currently accepting new Medicaid patients

Source: The Kaiser Family Foundation/Commonwealth Fund 2015 National Survey of Primary Care Providers.

Exhibit 4. Physicians' Opinions About the Affordable Care Act Are Split, with Sharp Divisions Along Party Lines

Among physicians: Overall, what is your opinion of the health care law that was passed in 2010, also known as the Affordable Care Act (ACA) or Obamacare?

■ Very unfavorable ■ Somewhat unfavorable □ Somewhat favorable ■ Very favorable

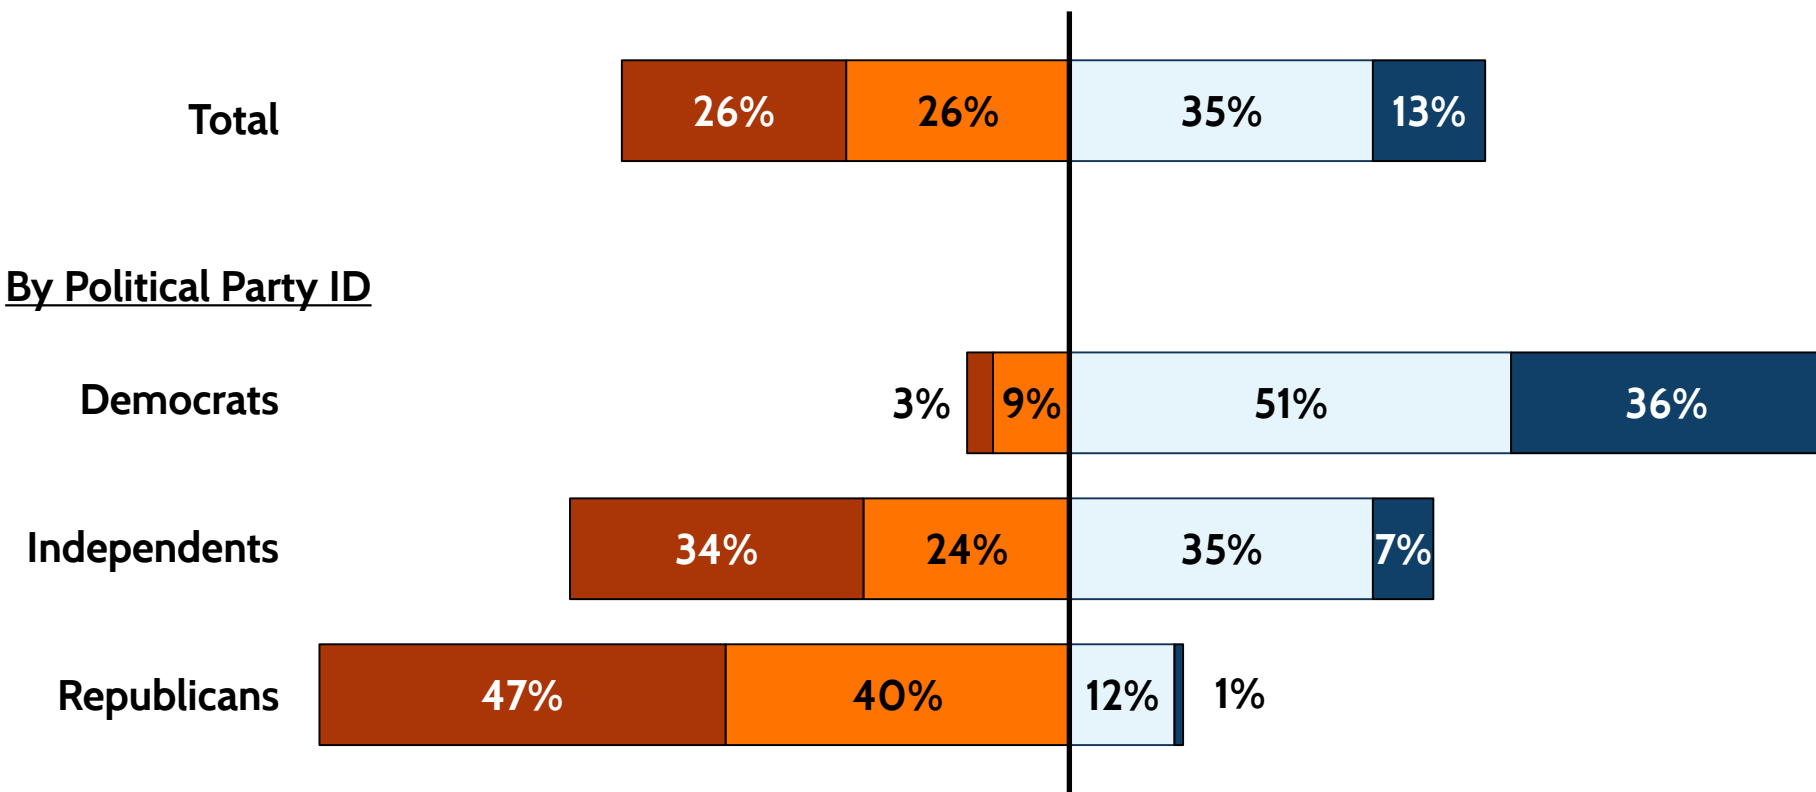

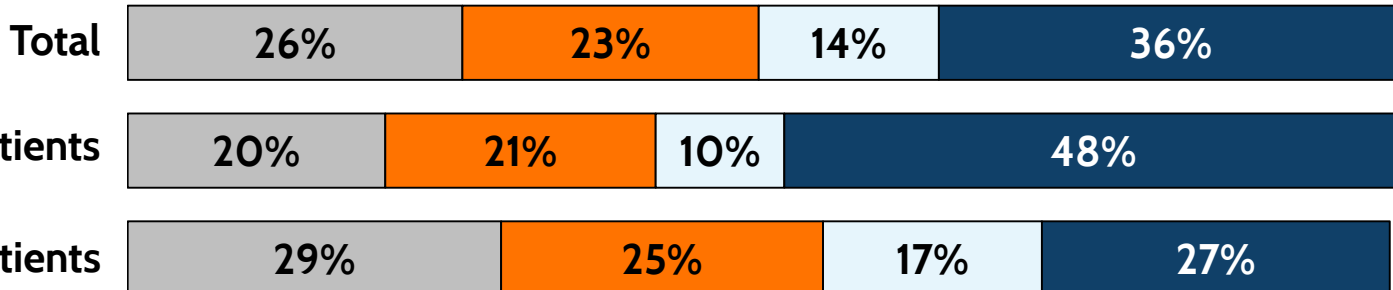

Exhibit 5. Providers Serving a Higher Proportion of Medicaid Patients Are More Likely to Say Medicaid Expansion Has Positively Impacted Their Ability to Provide Quality Care

Do you think the expansion of Medicaid under the Affordable Care Act is having a positive, negative, or no impact on primary care providers' ability to provide quality care to their patients?

Not sure
 Negative
 No impact
 Positive

Physicians

Nurse practitioners/Physician assistants

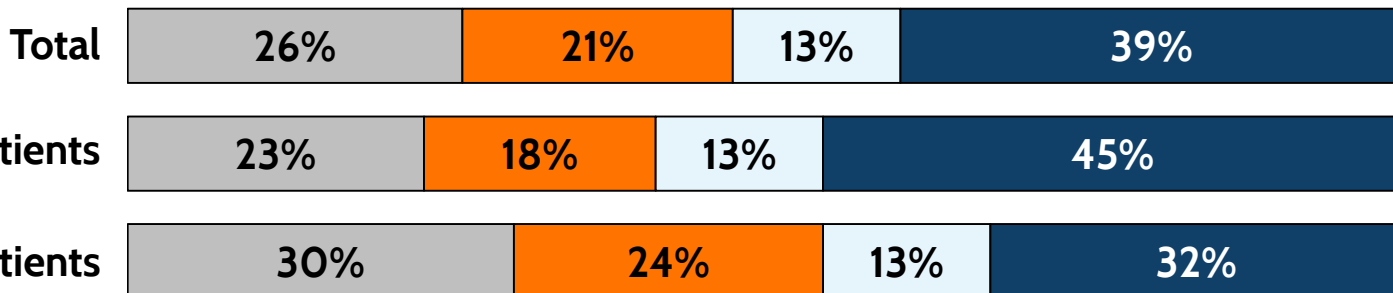

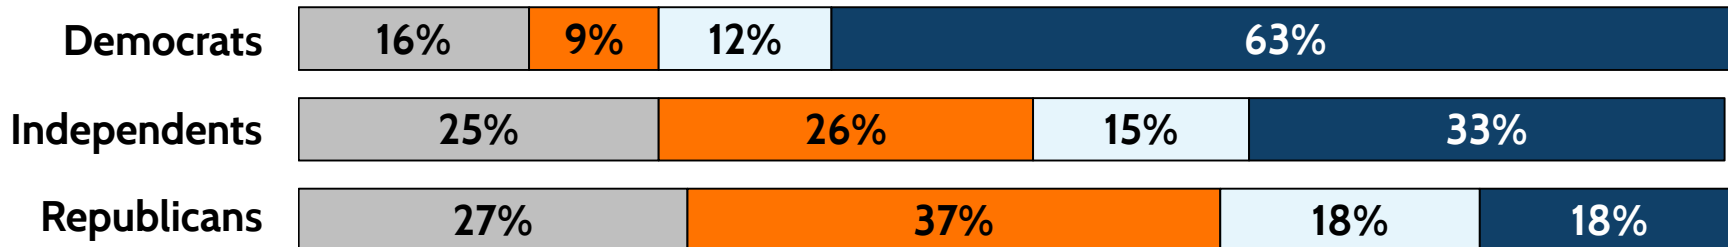

Exhibit 6. Partisan Divisions Persist on Views of Medicaid Expansion and Its Impact on the Ability to Provide Quality Care

Do you think the expansion of Medicaid under the Affordable Care Act is having a positive, negative, or no impact on primary care providers' ability to provide quality care to their patients?

Not sure
 Negative
 No impact
 Positive

Physicians

Nurse practitioners/Physician assistants

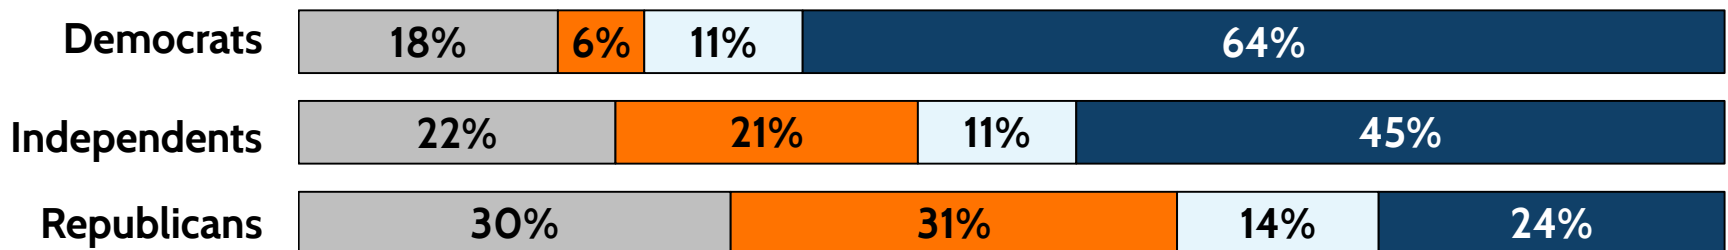

Exhibit 7. Physicians' Views of the Impact of Health Reform on Their Practice and Patients Are More Negative on Cost of Care and More Positive on Access and Health Insurance

Among physicians: Percent who say the ACA has had a positive impact, negative impact, or no impact on each of the following:

Not sure
 Negative impact
 No impact
 Positive impact

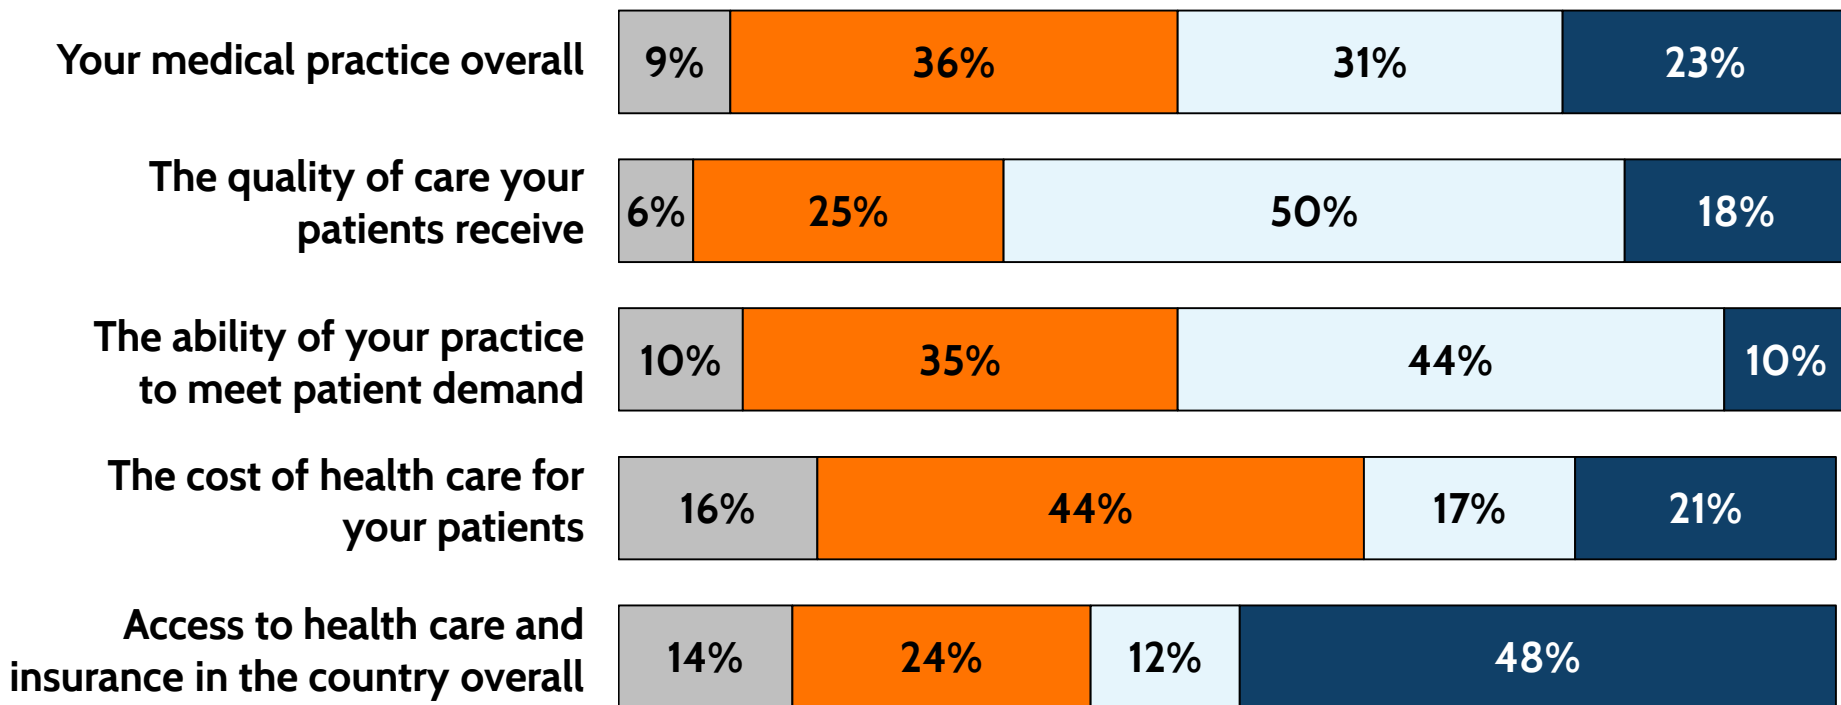

Exhibit 8. The Vast Majority of Providers—Democrats and Republicans Alike—Are Satisfied with Their Medical Practice

Percent of providers reporting they are “very or somewhat” satisfied with their medical practice overall

