

Coverage and Changes in Spending Compared to Current Law, 2020

Millions of people

- Short-term, limited-duration plans
- Uninsured

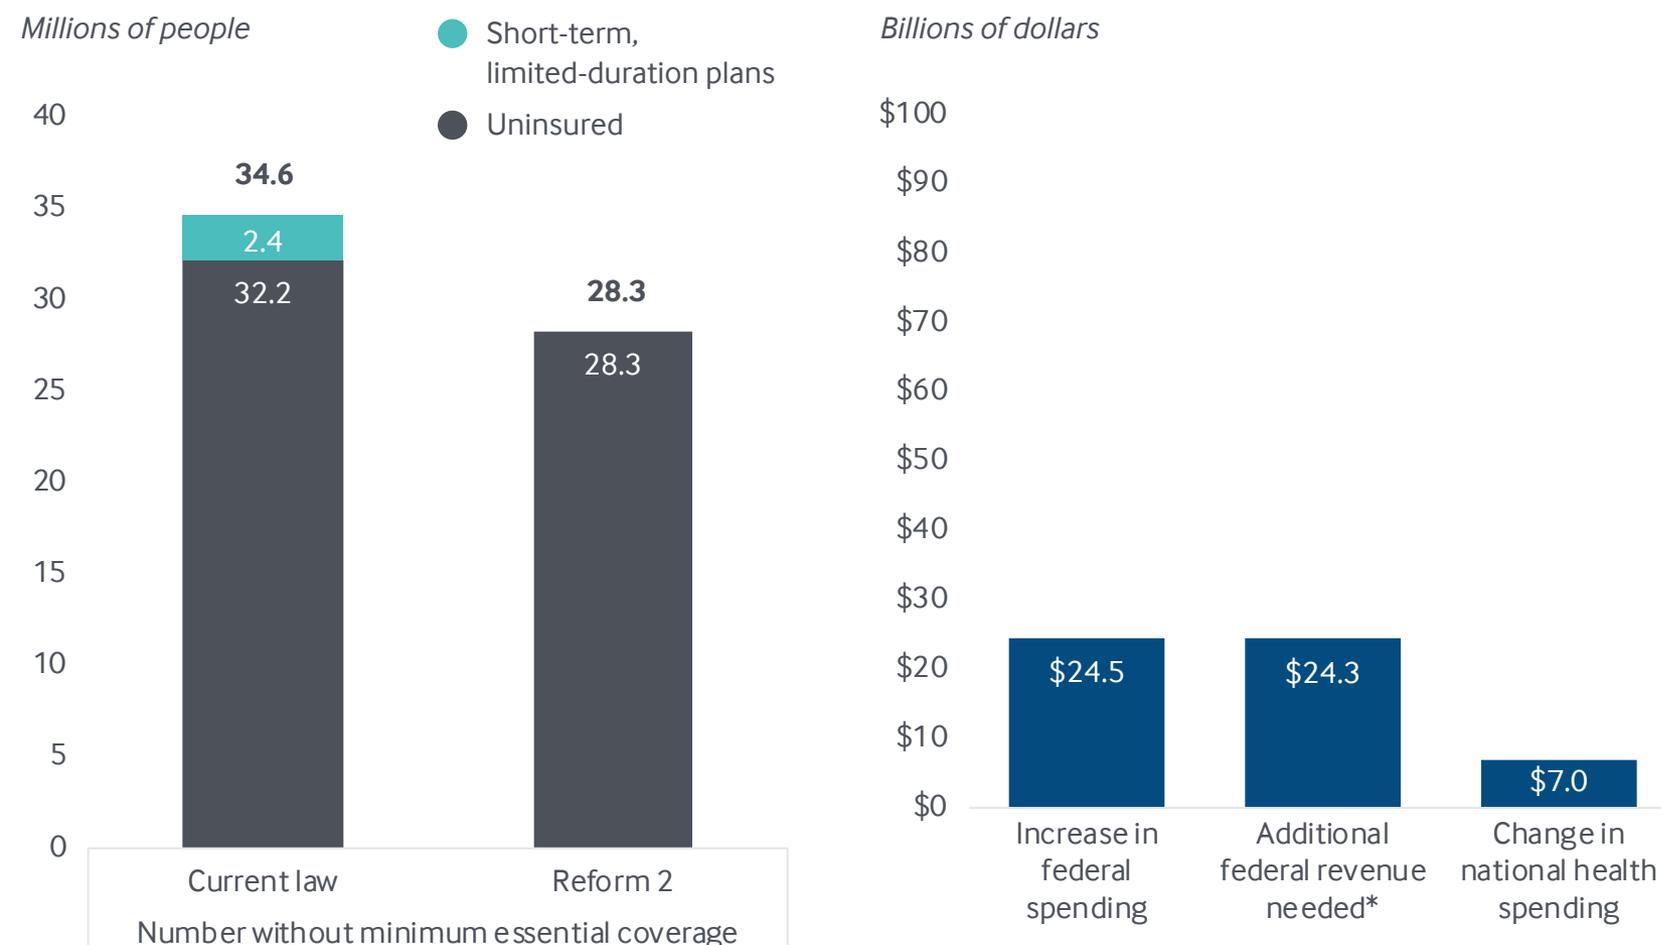

Billions of dollars

* Increase in federal revenue needed to finance reform, net of additional income tax receipts resulting from reduced employer spending on health insurance passed back to workers as wage increases.

Data: Urban Institute analysis.

Coverage and Changes in Spending Compared to Current Law, 2020

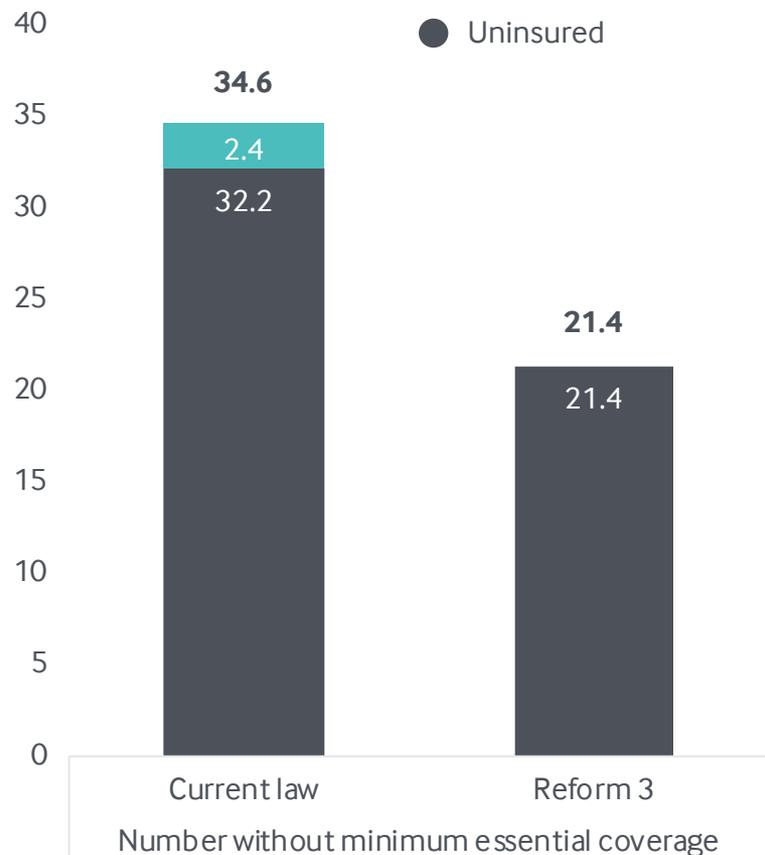

* Increase in federal revenue needed to finance reform, net of additional income tax receipts resulting from reduced employer spending on health insurance passed back to workers as wage increases.

Data: Urban Institute analysis.

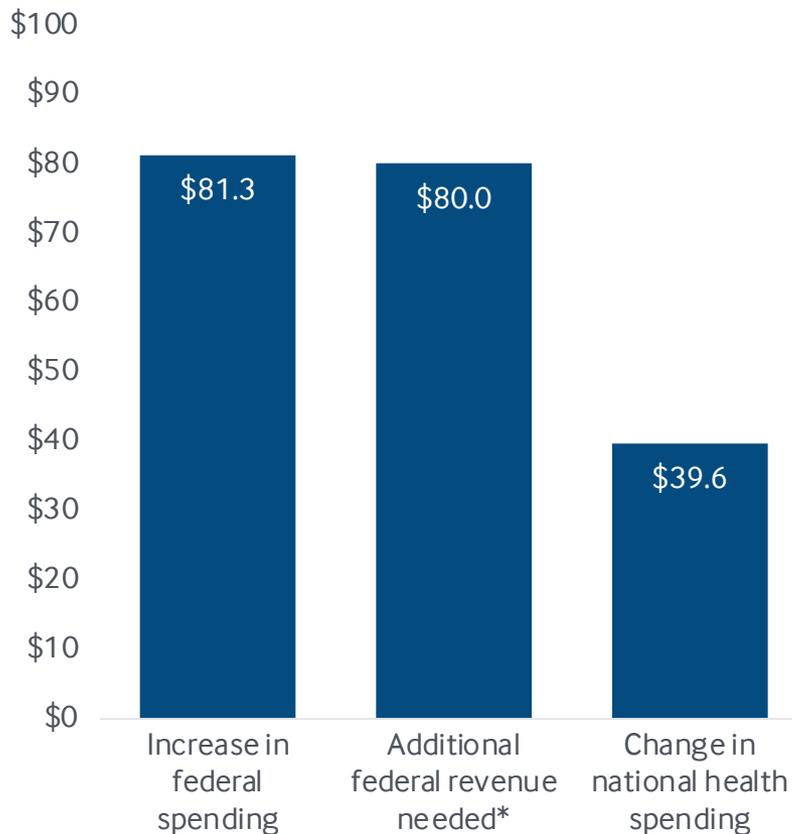

Coverage and Changes in Spending Compared to Current Law, 2020

Millions of people

- Short-term, limited-duration plans
- Uninsured

Billions of dollars

* Increase in federal revenue needed to finance reform, net of additional income tax receipts resulting from reduced employer spending on health insurance passed back to workers as wage increases.

Data: Urban Institute analysis.

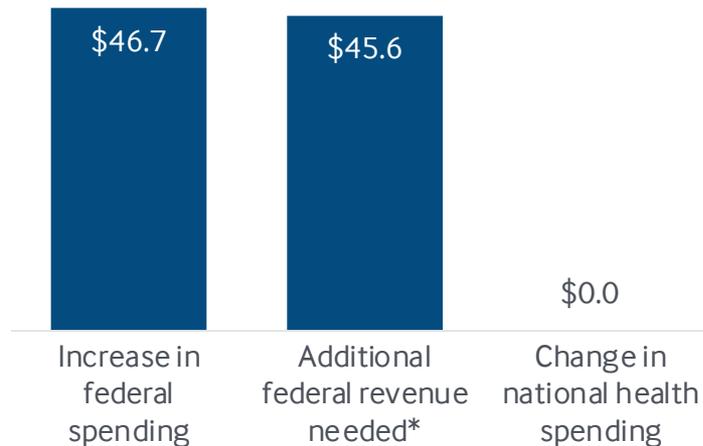

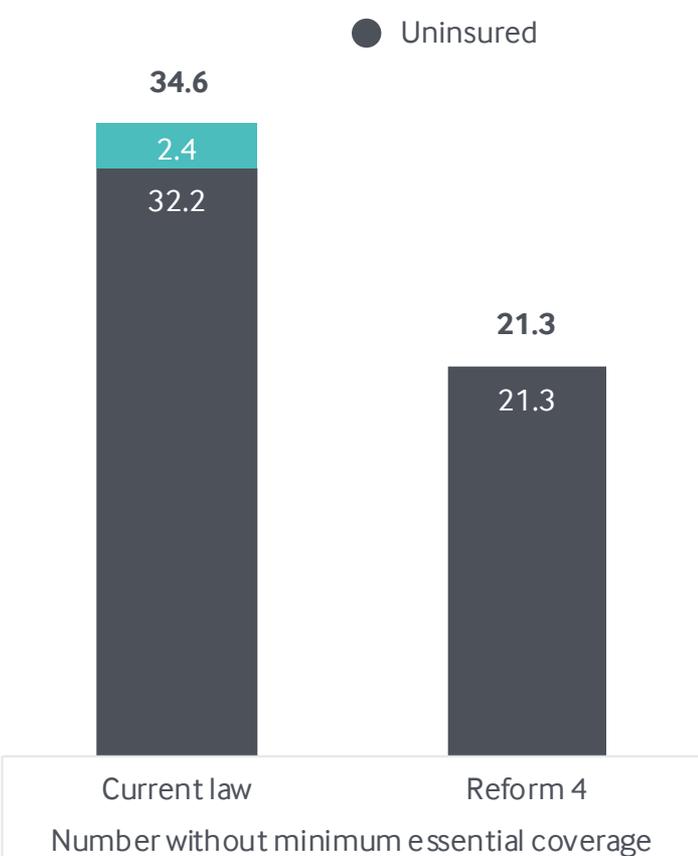

Coverage and Changes in Spending Compared to Current Law, 2020

Millions of people

- Short-term, limited-duration plans
- Uninsured

Billions of dollars

$100
$90
$80
$70
$60
$50
$40
$30
$20
$10
$0

* Increase in federal revenue needed to finance reform, net of additional income tax receipts resulting from reduced employer spending on health insurance passed back to workers as wage increases.

Data: Urban Institute analysis.

Coverage and Changes in Spending Compared to Current Law, 2020

* Increase in federal revenue needed to finance reform, net of additional income tax receipts resulting from reduced employer spending on health insurance passed back to workers as wage increases.

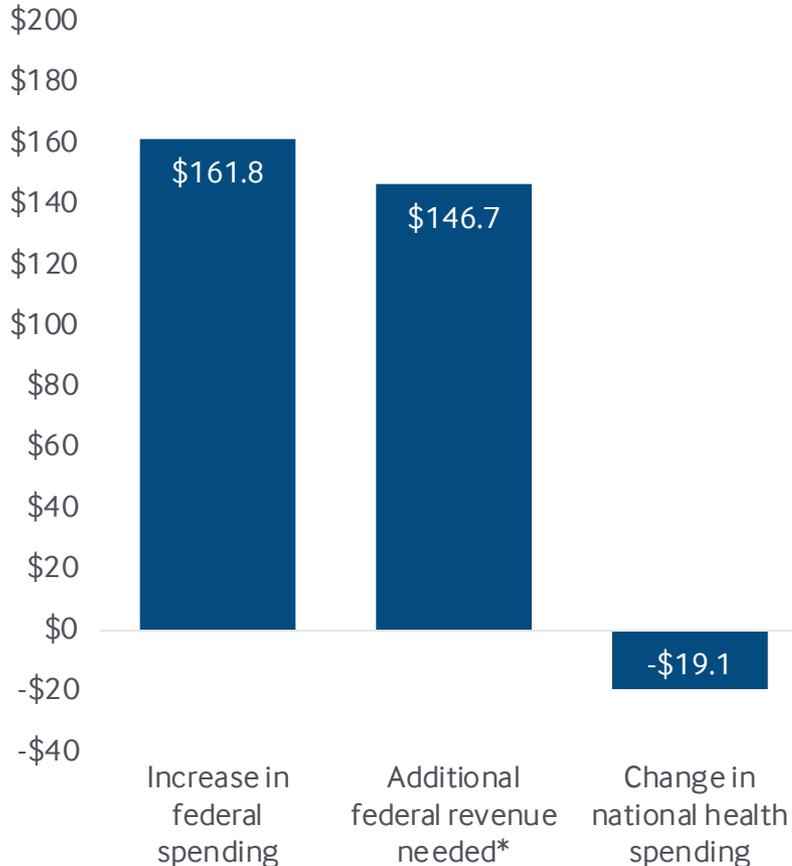

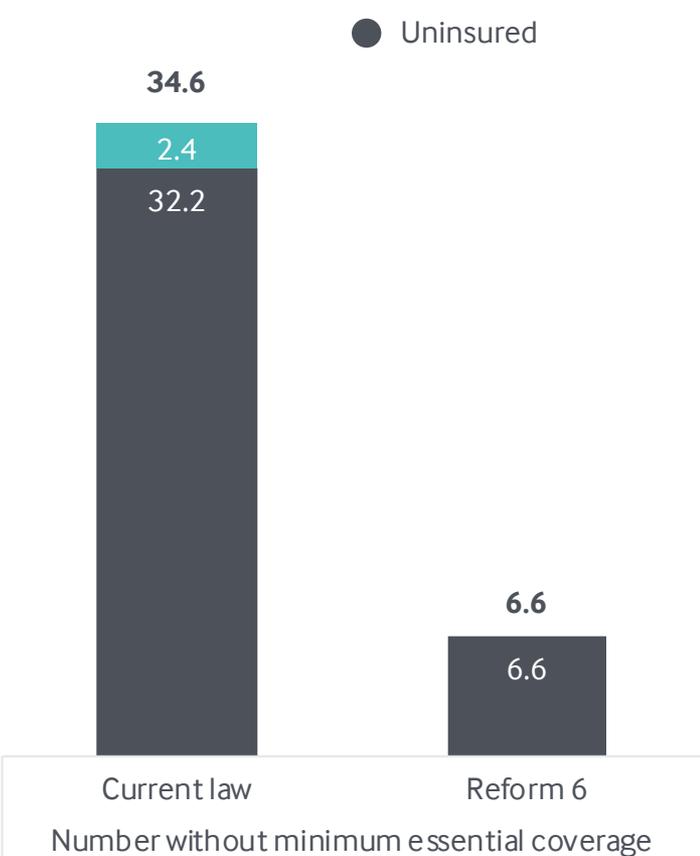

Data: Urban Institute analysis.

Coverage and Changes in Spending Compared to Current Law, 2020

Millions of people

- Short-term, limited-duration plans
- Uninsured

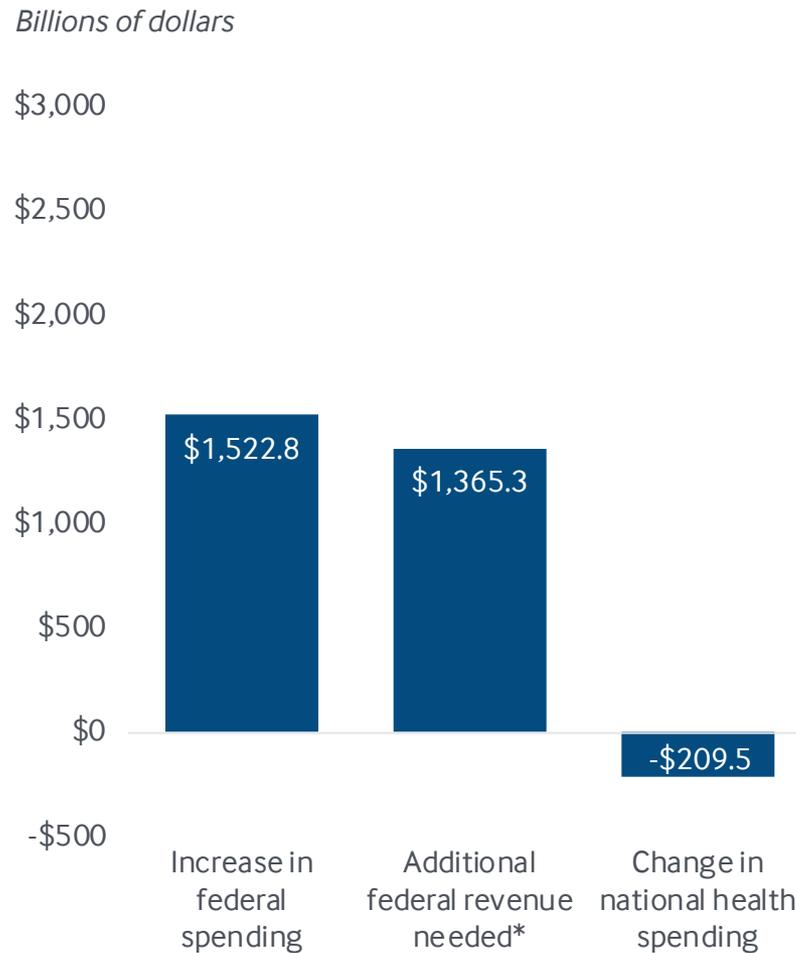

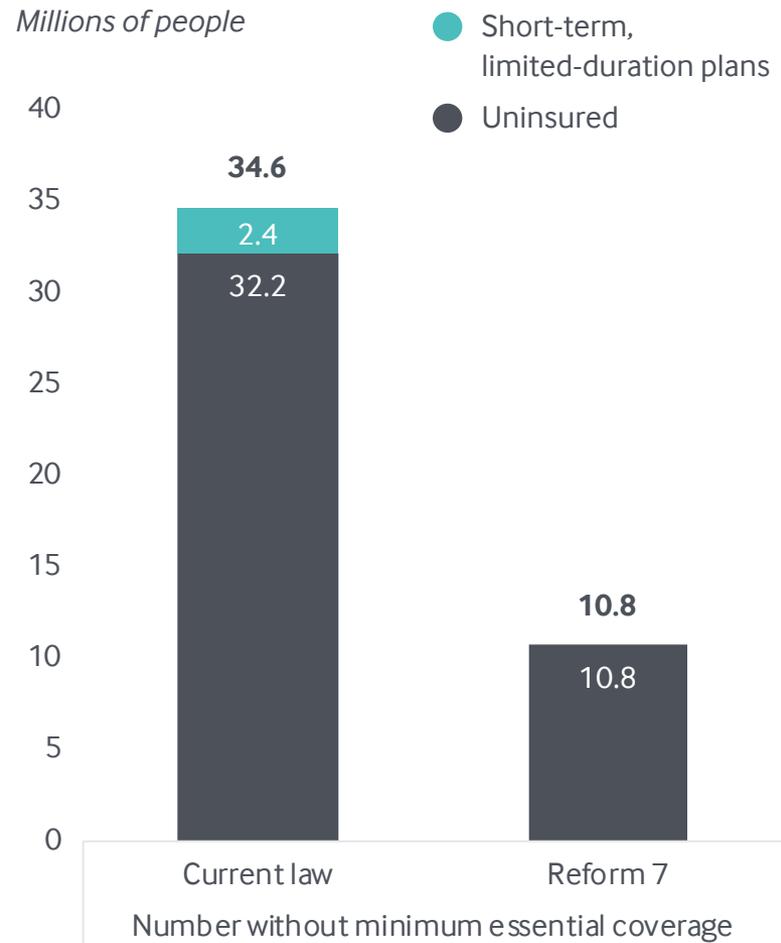

Billions of dollars

* Increase in federal revenue needed to finance reform, net of additional income tax receipts resulting from reduced employer spending on health insurance passed back to workers as wage increases.

Data: Urban Institute analysis.

Coverage and Changes in Spending Compared to Current Law, 2020

* Increase in federal revenue needed to finance reform, net of additional income tax receipts resulting from reduced employer spending on health insurance passed back to workers as wage increases.

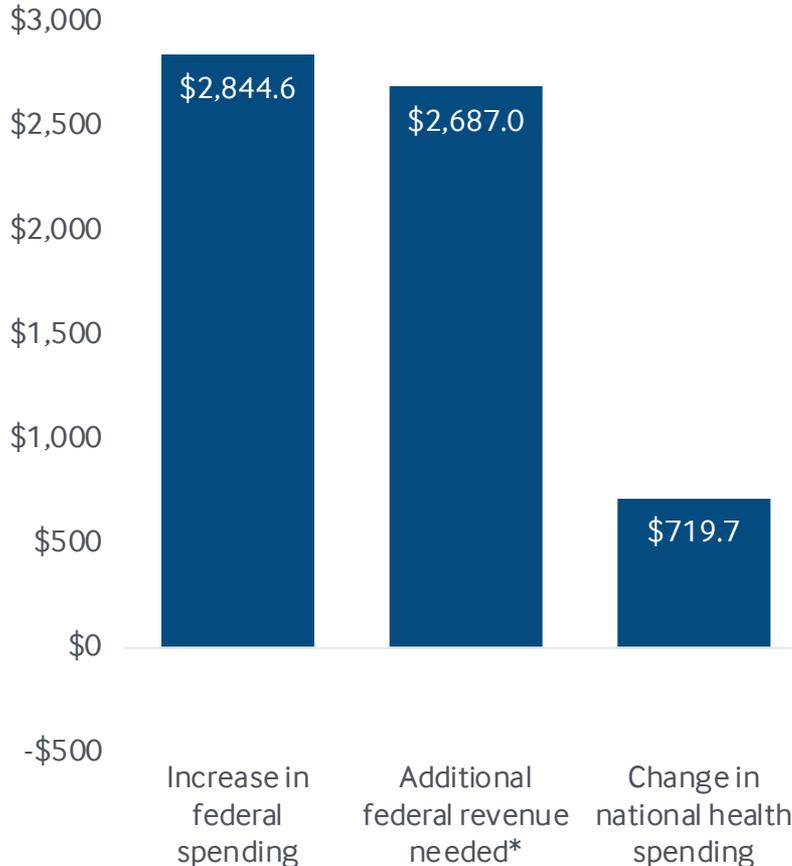

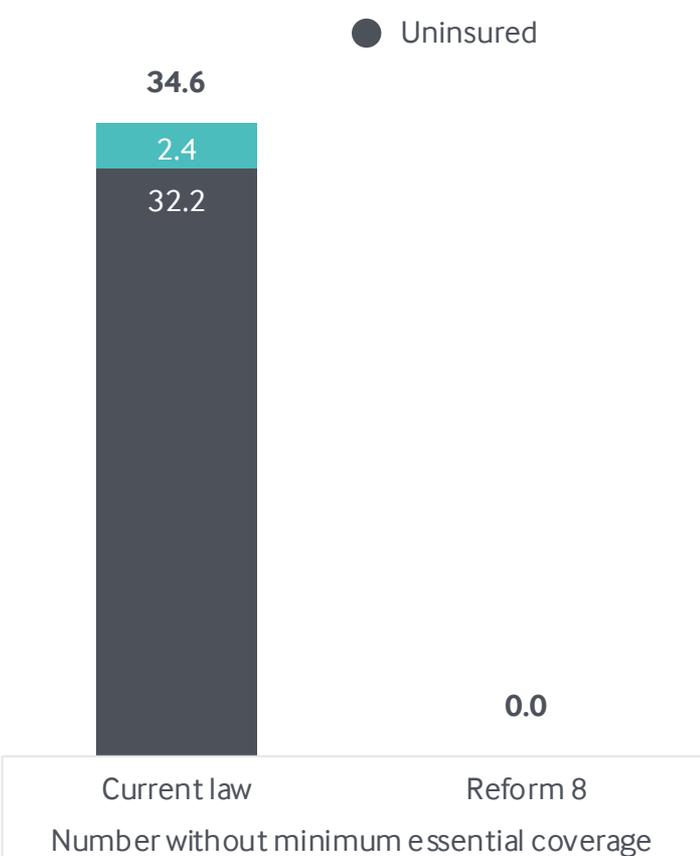

Data: Urban Institute analysis.

Coverage and Changes in Spending Compared to Current Law, 2020

Millions of people

- Short-term, limited-duration plans
- Uninsured

Billions of dollars

* Increase in federal revenue needed to finance reform, net of additional income tax receipts resulting from reduced employer spending on health insurance passed back to workers as wage increases.

Data: Urban Institute analysis.