

Co-sponsors

Invite you to an advance screening of the new documentary, U.S. HEALTH CARE: THE GOOD NEWS

with correspondent T.R. Reid

A documentary examining how some doctors and hospitals are accomplishing what many thought impossible—providing quality health care at a reasonable cost.

Followed by a panel discussion on the New York City perspective on achieving a high performance health system.

Monday, January 23, 2012

4:30–7:30 p.m.

4:30 Reception

5:45 Screening

6:30 Panel discussion

CUNY Graduate Center
Elebash Recital Hall
365 Fifth Avenue at 34th Street
New York, NY

Panelists

James R. Tallon, Jr., President, United Hospital Fund (moderator)

Neil Calman, M.D., President and CEO, Institute for Family Health

Trudy Lieberman, Contributing Editor, Columbia Journalism Review

Herbert Pardes, M.D., Executive Vice Chair, New York Presbyterian Hospital

T.R. Reid, Correspondent

Please RSVP here: <http://tinyurl.com/6p7rdbd>

Or: bf@cmwf.org

301-448-7411

Seating is limited.

U.S. HEALTH CARE: THE GOOD NEWS is produced by Photopia Productions, LLC in cooperation with Rocky Mountain PBS.
Coming to PBS Thursday, February 16, 2012, 9 P.M. EST.